Oldest Tobacco House in Wilmington. HENRY BURKHEIMER. WHOLESALE and Retail

Dealer in TOBACCO, SNUFF and CIGARS,

WILMINGTON, N. C. filled with dispatch. nov. 5

For the Journal. LIFE IS A DREAM.

BY MONONIA.

'Tis the sweet dream of childhood, To live up to manhood, And seek the wild pleasures Of earth, and of sea. But nature is teasing, And wayward, and pleasing, And bright pictures sketches

For you, and for me. The substance 's but shadow We follow each year. The joy is but sad, O, The journey no gladder, For each day we shed But the bright briny tear.

Thro' clouds, and thro' sunshine Our weary way plodding, Surrounded with dangers unknown to us then. They steal on us, robbing The joys of that pastime When naught did we know but our mother's sweet

Let me dangle thee, darling, Thy golden hair ringlets, Thy little lips kiss, And thy round, dimpl'd chin Thy chubby hands hide In thy Mamma's pure bosom, And her arms encircle, And press thee again.

The sigh of the moment comes quickly upon us When upward we climb to the Bible's high hi We look to the past, and see nothing to borrow, For all is now lost in the fleet flowing rill. The present is gloomy-In this shadow of death,

Nothing is left us to make our lives lighter, But much do we find Our manhood is shorn of all its beams golden; The laurel must yield to the cypress and yew;

And this valley of sin.

We that were so fearless, dee the red gleaming meteor of mars now go down To set in its crimson Of glory a symbol

Of wisdom, and valor; to all ages renown. us sealed as a letter, we'll know it no better Chan the joys which we tasted in youths' early

We'll look back upon them In joy mixed with sorrow nd take from them pleasure as each pass away WILMINGTON, May 12, 1868.

STATE NEWS.

in this city than at the present time. The unsettled condition of affairs seems to have is the rule of Radicalism there is no good reason why we should relax our efforts or give up in despair. Politics have little to culiarly that time; never in the history of village for hospitality which it has so long says: this country were the rewards of labor so enjoyed. of the word our prospects are bright and ties .- Warrenton Courier. brightening. The wheat crop is promising, and soon the yellow sheaves will be ready to yield the golden grain, which will bring money market. Then, in six weeks, trade will revive, and an activity imparted which will be felt in every branch of business. It is not only unpatriotic to desert our good old mother in this, her hour of humiliation, but it is unwise. There is no portion of the habitable globe where well-directed energy is more sure of an ample reward than in this favored section of North Carolina. There are regions where the land is more productive, but the distance from market more than counterbalances that advantage. If we are true to ourselves our destiny is a glorious one.

STILL CHEERING.—The accounts from the farming communities throughout this section is of the most cheering nature, as the extreme backwardness encountered by the damage. We are pleased to find, however, trust may be successful in the pursuit. played itself in only a few localities, though it seems to have passed over the entire length of the country.

Salisbury Old North State. mendacious Chronicle, speaking of this distinguished gentleman's visit to Washington, says :

continue to act as he has in the past."

cle in his way is that he was not elected by which human patience, no more than

Forney's assumption that Mr. Boyden will not act with the Democrats, in any manner whatever, is gratuitous. Mr. Boyden will not act with Radicalism, "in any manner whatever." He is too good a Union man for that .- Ral. Sentinel.

by's family live in the county of Surry. Fayetteville News.

Fayetteville Presbyterian.

will deliver a Literary Address at Mecklenburg Female College, on this (Thursday) evening, May 14, at 8 o'clock. The public are invited to attend.

We are sure that a great treat is in store for all who may be able to be present. Dr. the literary savans at the South. Charlotte Times.

OFF FOR CHICAGO. - We learn that Tourgee, Pilgrim Ashley, Tim. Lee and J. H. Harris, (negro), left the city on vesterday, en route for Chicago, to attend the Radical Federal soldiery. Convention. Is Jim a delegate?

learn of the death of Hugh Rice, which clare what its true position is in reference brief in its public and protracted in its se- bis feet, and making a speech against the to us only an unmeasured expression of partnership, and being dragooned from occurred recently in Texas, where he was method of doing it than in the State Content of a Democratic President, intellectually, morally and politically, are road. Mr. Rice will be remembered as a tional Democratic Convention at New on Thursday last but eight Senators being of the people's representatives," Mr. Man- that a majority of the Senate may rule con- them for guidance, instead of presuming former citizen of this place. Salisbury Old North State.

Hon. NAT. Boyden.-This gentleman who has been in Washington for several days, returned on yesterday evening. learn from him that his name was among the two hundred whose disabilities have been removed by the vote of the House of Representatives, and that he will almost certainly be admitted to his seat with the member of the delegation from this State. Old North State, 14th.

OUR FRIENDS in the various counties of the State are requested to send at once, to Democracy made a mistake in postponing tor Sherman then said that before the the day's events, and there is not a public who placed him in office by their votes by such antics as those which Butler and R. C. Badger, Secretary of the State Conservative Executive Committee, the names Committee to call it in June. Let us of unanimous approval of the Senate. "Toof all gentlemen in the State elected to of- the South be ready for any emergency, and morrow," he said, "will be a day of great The night session of the Senate attracted were formed of him. THE PROSPECT.—Trade was never duller fice, legislative or local, in the recent electron of their feeling and excitement," and he moved that the Serlarge crowds to the Capitol, but none were tions, who are barred by Art. XIV, com- opinions before the people of the United geant-at-arms be directed to distribute his admitted to the lobbies of the Senate ciding between the claims of Republican sensational drama, the circus or the bear monly known as the Howard amendment, States as soon as possible. or who are otherwise under disabilities .destroyed public confidence, and in a It is also requested that the reasons of their without any further directions from the diana, Cattell, of New Jersey, Wilson, Har- Congress was right, and that advocated by of the Senate, and we trust they will not measure to have prostrated the energies of disabilities shall be stated. Prompt and ling, fraternal, and self-sacrificing as men Senate. Senator Edmunds said there was lan and others, all original impeachers, the President wrong, there was no reason look in vain.—Baltimore Sun, 15th. the people. This should not be. Bad as immediate attention to this matter is most engaged in a struggle so holy should be, I already a standing order to that effect.— who have spoken in favor of conviction.— on this ground for putting the President desirable.-Raleigh Sentinel, 15th.

THE Annual Convention of the Medical Association of North Carolina will be held do with material prosperity. A badly gov- in this place on the 20th inst. It is exerned, yea, an oppressed people, may en- pected that quite a number of the fraternijoy all the comforts of life in abundance, tv will be present and we hope the citizens and even grow rich. The present is pe- generally will sustain the reputation of our great, or prices so remunerative. Cotton | We learn that each convention of the 25 to 30 cents per pound; corn $1 30 per association since the war has been characbushel; wheat $2 to $2 75 per bushel, and | terized by a display of the greatest cordialall the multifarious productions of the soil ity on the part of those who were fortunate has weakened from the first day that it came into | tion would be tolerated, and that in proportion. Then, if we cannot be enough to have these gentlemen with them, statesmen we can "seize the plow, and and it would but ill become old Warren greatly, independently live." In one sense to be less hospitable than her sister coun-

THE WHEAT CROP-THE WEATHER. - The wheat crop in this section of the State is money enough into circulation to relieve looking unusually fine. It is earlier than the stringency (if there is really any) in the usual, most of it being now in head .- | whole thing must be abandoned. Since the year 1861 it has not been as early or looked so well at this season of the year as at present. But there is great reason to final trial. It means defeat. Impeachment will fear that it may yet be destroyed by the be weaker on Saturday than it was on Tuesday." continued wet weather. Indeed we already begin to hear some complaints of the rust. If the wet weather should cease now and we hope for dry weather to follow for ests of the people." awhile.—Salisbury Old North State.

OUTRAGE BY A NEGRO.—As Mr. Jno. Ellen, who lives in the vicinity of Raleigh, ing, to his work, he was accosted by a negro man, who told him that he had discovlateness of the spring has been to a great ered the corpse of a white man in the adextent surmounted, and the farmers are jacent woods, and asked that he (Mr. E.) quite cheerful. One farmer with whom would go with him to see the body and ported to us the destruction of fields of made his way to town and communicated Raleigh Sentinel, 15th. IF, now, the President fails to be convicted, after all the fury and fuss of this desperate faction which seeks to control Hon. NATHANIEL BOYDEN. - Forney's the country, what is to be done with that great speech of Manager Gen. Logan, which he took such pains to dispatch to various individuals and public bodies in Europe? Will he try to "hedge" by recalling it the Reconstruction Committee the passage was a great speech, even before "filing;" the 'Old North State,' and has never act- men of our domestic eagle, needed the ed with the Democrats in any manner best wishes of a Radical Congressional whatever. It is probable that when he is chaplain to waft it safely across the waves admitted to his seat in the House he will to the haven where it would go. Read, however, in the light of the President's ac-We do not know what "his colleagues" quittal, we apprehend that it will part with may have done, but we are inclined to a large share of that "eloquence," which, doubt Forney's statement, in view of the in its author's eyes, manifestly supplies the fact that the Radical paper in this city, greater part of its staple. If this be edited by the Radical Governor elect, has American eloquence, they will say in given utterance to the threat that Congress | Lurope, what good fortune is ours that the | made in the United States Court to-day to | the Court to-day to will have nothing to do with Mr. Boyden. Atlantic rolls between us and such an overliberate ex-Confederate naval officer John and was followed by Mr. Davis. Everyliberate ex-Confederate naval officer John and was followed by Mr. Davis. Everyliberate ex-Confederate naval officer John and was followed by Mr. Davis. Everyliberate ex-Confederate naval officer John and was followed by Mr. Davis. Everyliberate ex-Confederate naval officer John and was followed by Mr. Davis. Everyliberate ex-Confederate naval officer John and was followed by Mr. Davis. Everyliberate ex-Confederate naval officer John and was followed by Mr. Davis. Everyliberate ex-Confederate naval officer John and was followed by Mr. Davis. Everyliberate ex-Confederate naval officer John and was followed by Mr. Davis. Everyliberate ex-Confederate naval officer John and was followed by Mr. Davis. Everyliberate ex-Confederate naval officer John and was followed by Mr. Davis. Everyliberate ex-Confederate naval officer John and was followed by Mr. Davis. Everyliberate ex-Confederate naval officer John and was followed by Mr. Davis. Everyliberate ex-Confederate naval officer John and was followed by Mr. Davis. Everyliberate ex-Confederate naval officer John and was followed by Mr. Davis. Everyliberate ex-Confederate naval officer John and was followed by Mr. Davis. Everyliberate ex-Confederate naval officer John and was followed by Mr. Davis. Everyliberate ex-Confederate naval officer John and was followed by Mr. Davis. Everyliberate ex-Confederate naval officer John and was followed by Mr. Davis. Everyliberate ex-Confederate naval officer John and was followed by Mr. Davis. Everyliberate ex-Confederate naval officer John and was followed by Mr. Davis. Everyliberate ex-Confederate naval officer John and was followed by Mr. Davis. Everyliberate ex-Confederate naval officer John and was followed by Mr. Davis exliberate ex-Confederate naval officer John and was followed by Mr. Davis exliberate exliberate ex-This much, however, we do know, that Mr. Whelming people! They would no doubt C. Braine. The Court reserved its de-B's Union record is as good as that of any sooner trust themselves to the wild surges cision. man elected to Congress from North Caro- of the sea than to come within reach of lina, native or imported. The only obsta- that tidal flow of words and plaster images human reason, is not able to withstand.

Boston Post.

Presidential Election.

Milmington

WASHINGTON, May 2, 1868. Profoundly interested in the issues of the next Presidential election, the people of the South should pretermit no action or ADVANCED AGE. —We have been shown a expression of opinion that might tend to letter by Mr. Wm. Overby, of this town, bear up a favorable result. It needs no in which, in reply to inquiries of his own, argument to prove that the Radical party a member of his family writes him that his hold itself in the confidence of the people has been enabled for several years past to father is now 106 years of age, and can of the North by a system of gross misrepstill, with the assistance of a common resentation of the temper and opinions of cane, walk about his farm; his brother is the South since the close of the war. Being 76 years old, and his sister 72-all in good in the seats of power in the Government, health. This is hard to beat. Mr. Over- and at the centre from which radiates the every person in the Capital of the Nation a court presided over by a justice of the Stanton upon the ground that the office, as which, with great formality and pomp, intelligence that informs public opinion, as this dispatch is written. It is for the peace. The sensation at Judge Trum- he held it, was tenable only during the Pre- they professed to inaugurate this proceed. Fire.—On Monday afternoon last, about less here, or nearly so, through the de- public facts—which fell from the lips of less here, or nearly so, through the de- public facts—which fell from the lips of less here, or nearly so, through the de- public facts—which fell from the lips of less here, or nearly so, through the de- public facts—which fell from the lips of less here, or nearly so, through the de- public facts—which fell from the lips of less here, or nearly so, through the de- public facts—which fell from the lips of less here, or nearly so, through the de- public facts—which fell from the lips of less here, or nearly so, through the de- public facts—which fell from the lips of less here, or nearly so, through the de- public facts—which fell from the lips of less here, or nearly so, through the de- public facts—which fell from the lips of less here, or nearly so, through the de- public facts—which fell from the lips of less here, or nearly so, through the de- public facts—which fell from the lips of less here, or nearly so, through the de- public facts—which fell from the lips of less here, or nearly so, through the de- public facts—which fell from the lips of less here, or nearly so, through the de- public facts—which fell from the lips of less here, or nearly so, through the de- public facts—which fell from the lips of less here, or nearly so, through the de- public facts—which fell from the lips of less here, or nearly so, through the de- public facts—which fell from the lips of less here, or nearly so, through the de- public facts—which fell from the lips of less here, or nearly so, through the de- public facts—which fell from the lips of less here. 5 o'clock, the turpentine distillery of A. Southern papers, the Radicals have suc- Republican Senators, in to-day's secret sesting forth the H. Slocum, located in the Northwestern ceeded in filling the minds of the masses sion of the Radical Senate, sitting within ing everybody they met, and nearly de- impeachment. There was certainly suffi- usurpations of "the great criminal," no part of the town, near the Railroad, was consumed by fire. The fire did not spread consumed the fire did not spread construction consumed by fire. The fire did not spread construction consumed by fire. The fire did not spread construction consumed by fire. The fire did not spread construction consumed by fire. The fire did not spread construction consumed by fire. The fire did not spread construction consumed by fire. The fire did not spread construction consumed by fire. The fire did not spread construction consumed by fire. The fire did not spread construction consumed by fire. The fire did not spread construction consumed by fire. The fire did not spread construction consumed by fire. The fire did not spread construction consumed by fire. The fire did not spread construction constructi to the buildings in the neighborhood. Mr. a lie." It is not that our intelligent North-Slocum's loss is estimated at $700 or $800. ern friends do not understand the truth linto the very hearts of the revolutionary to Boutwell, retailing Trumbull's conver-Fayetteville Presbyterian.

Literary Treat.—We are requested to state that William Gilmore Simms, L. L. the Radicals persistently deny. Large liberty, is to use a stereotype dephrase, per- ishment for convicted and deposed Ameri- of his constitutional advisers; and it is of siderations. It asserts that impeachment D., the Washington Irving of the South, masses of Northern people on their farms haps in briefly compassing the interest can Presidents. The House, however, still greater importance to observe, what involves the same issues that the war did. now as it was while the war was flagrant, Grimes, Henderson, Trumbull and Fessen- Capitol; so the body at once adjourned ing as he did with Mr. Stanton was to ob- from those between Grant and Lee?"and that only the sword stifles its outbreak; den, declared to-day from their places in the that we only await the restoration of State that we can also t Simms is justly regarded as the chief of the war, would revive the validity of the against Andrew Johnson, President of the doubt about Trumbull. "Impeachment sible to regard the President's act in re- Senate who are acting upon their own in-

Raleigh Sentinel, 15th.

DEATH OF HUGH RICE.—We regret to DEATH OF ged as civil engineer on a line of rail- ventions to nominate delegates to the Na- 10 o'clock a. m., pursuant to adjournment Manager Logan and that is all. It is certainly possible their inferiors, and ought to look up to York; and I would carnestly advise all in their seats. The chaplain prayed that ager Bingham, together with nearly all the scientiously as well as rightly, that Mr. to suggest, and even daring to threaten those bodies, either by resolutions or by on the conclusion of this great trial pray- Radical members, in an excited frame of Johnson's attempt to dismiss Mr. Stanton and bully them. The sober and reflecting an address to the people of the United ers would go up from the whole country mind. The most frequent interjection was a violation of law, but it will not be people of this country, who do not wish to practical results of the war.

are greatly needed, and would exert a powthink that the National Committee of the Senator desired to make a motion. Sena- Capitol gave the city a chance to discuss been as becoming and as politic as those people might not object to being amused

I have great hopes in November, 1868. am prepared to see the enemies of free Senator Sumner thought that an intima- Senators Frelinghuysen, Ross, Anthony, on his trial. Congress had its own way, government and white political domination tion to the Sergeant-at-arms would be all Sprague, Willey, Van Winkle, and Patter- though with a little opposition. It was Attempted Outrage by a Negro on a White in America overwhelmed and routed in a Waterloo defeat.

Editorial Cor. Mobile Register.

Will Impeachment Succeed. The Journal of Commerce of New York

is in favor of the President. The longer impeachment is kept before the people, the more hateful and unsupportable does it become. Impeachment pressions of approbation or disapprobathe Senate. Like a cannon ballifired horizontally, all those violating the rules of order every moment of time has brought it nearer to the ground, where it will lie at last, a dull and inert thing, spurned by the foot of the people."

The New York Times says: "Impeachment has failed. The postponement of the vote untill Saturday is a confession of the closed at 10:20 A. M. The Chief Justice fact; and the declaration, on behalf of the prose- then said that the first business in order cution, that it will not be taken even then, unless conviction be certain, indicates a belief that the

The New York Herald says : "Adjournment in the present circumstances means that the Radicals dared not encounter the

The Tribune says: "We have no new thought to give the Senate. We regret the adjournment. The suspense that pervades the country-nay, the whole civilized the remainder of the month of May be dry | world-should be ended. What the country we think the crop is safe. Otherwise it wants is a verdict, and that speedily. If it is a may be lost. As up to the present time the verdict acquitting Mr. Johnson, we can underweather has been wet continuously, and as conviction, the sooner we enter upon the duties "the May season" has now been passed, of a new Administration the better for the inter-

The Tribune says in another article "The vote acquitting the President admits that that his expenses this year were only a tenth of what they were last, while his prospects were twice as good. May there prospects were twice as good. May there not be something like "life in the old land very even though the neglection of t yet," even though the political heavens look portentous.—Weldon News.

Senate and caused no particular sensation. Senate and caused no particular sensation and caused no particular sensation. Senate and caused no particular sensation and To save his life, and being knocked almost twenty-one years of age, and seemed to be He proceeded in an earnest manner to Mr. Johnson. That he did not sympathize political associations, such as the Loyal her. day last did important damage to crops in portions of this county. We have bad as a county when the county with the views of this county. We have bad as a county when the county with the views of this county when the county with the views of this county when the county with the crew, with great exertion, and to denounce them oppose the articles, made oppose the articles, and to denounce them oppose the articles, are also are portions of this county. We have had re- off with the booty. Mr. E. subsequently world. Years passed away and no tidings as unworthy of any consideration at surely free, that he spoke without much the facts to the Mayor. The police are on parents, now approaching old age, had by declaring that he should vote against in America speech is very free, indeed.— States army. The whites, chafing under her also, and drove her ashore on Stay wheat in some cases; and in others, serious damage. We are pleased to find, however the look-out for the black rascal, and we have the conviction of the President the Conviction of the Presi or hearing from him again. About a year ago, a citizen of Chicago being in Samunds, of Vermont, Mr. Howe, of Wisconmunds, which is the Mr. Howe, which is the Mr it was needless to try to deceive him, as he knew him too well; and finally the wan liter was a po
it was needless to try to deceive him, as he knew him too well; and finally the wan
liter was a po
ity, are ready for anything in the prosecu
tity, are ready for anything in the prosecu tity and finally the wan
ity, are ready for anything in the prosecu
tity are sight of. The other day Bailey's Circus privileged to admission. The Radicals words the ground of a solemn impeach- perhaps, appear, till after the restoration Stony Point. The schooner J. M. Clark, "His colleagues have recommended to with the help of the cable? No doubt it Company pitched their tent here, and among were jubilant over conviction; and judging ment. of a bill relieving him from the disabilities what must it be after having taken on the interest of opinion fair question for American lawyers to deincurred by his participation in the rebel- salty flavors of the old Atlantic! The good company with his wife, a very worthy set that all the Southern troubles are over, strength. The tornado was apparently lion. He was formally all the salty flavors of the old Atlantic! The good company with his wife, a very worthy set that way very vigorously. lion. He was formerly a leading Whig in ship that carried aboard such a rare specideclining years of his aged parents. Chicago Post.

The Case of Lleutenant Braine.

NEW YORK, May 14.-A motion was Industry. giving them a fortune.

WASHINGTON, May 1. " IMPEACHMENT." "The President will be acquitted." and we of the South being entirely voice- first time based on facts-solid, earnest, bull's opposition to conviction was very sident's pleasure. It seems to us impossible ing. The solemn array of high crimes and ficiency of Northern circulation for our four of the oldest and most distinguished spread with astonishing rapidity. Mem- er actually a breach of the law or not, was wherein the constitution had been violated. about us, and know how solemnly and party and created a profound and wide sion for acquittal. Mr. Boutwell looked in his favor. It was stated in his defence, throws overboard law and testimony, and and in their workshops to-day believe that and feeling that are manifested in the ap- could not sit and hear the revulsion that has been openly alleged for him, and never and asks: "In what essential does the isrebellion is as active in Southern hearts proaching day of final judgment. Senators came rolling on from the other side of the contradicted, that his sole object in deal- sues between Bingham and Evarts differ power to re-establish slavery; that we do did not sustain the articles of impeachment, Senate Chamber. Every Radical member ing to constitutional law. In the face of howling decision at all pretences of law and not accept any of the legitimate results of preferred by the House of Representatives soon satisfied himself that there was no these considerations, it seems to us impos- justice, should warn those members of the Confederate public debt, and deny the United States, and by to-morrow noon, equality of races before the law in respect there is the highest and best reason to beto protection of person and property; that lieve, more than enough of other Republicant contented themselves by stating that con-Union men are not safe among us; and can Senators will join in the verdict of viction looked very blue. In the midst of fore the country. that to murder negroes in cold blood is a those named, to insure the acquittal of the the noisy stream of talk and speculation, The impeachment of the Chief Magis- valuable public services have won them the pastime to us, only limited by dread of the Nation's Chief Magistrate. Without stop- interspersed with some vigorous betting by trate of a nation is an act of extreme grav- respect of all whose respect is worth ping to detail the feeling of rejoicing pre- some who had turned, and desired now ity, to be justified only by overpowering having, that they cannot go with the men It is important that the South should valent among the Conservative elements to- to retrieve the losses that seemed star- considerations of public welfare. We fail who, in their desperation, have thrown off States, to declare their acceptance of the for restored peace and prosperity for all heard in the confusion was profane and held in Europe, and we should think it be lashed into an eternal fury upon the I am persuaded that such declarations ately took the chair, and the Court of Im- peachment has failed, and the Republican was such a violation of law as to demand the great intellectual lights in politics and peachment was opened in due form, after party has gone to hell!" Mr. Fessenden's these extreme proceedings. It will be far law, and do not desire to see them diserful influence upon the issues of the com- which the minutes of Thursday were read, opposition made the fourth Republican easier to rule that the President has occa- turbed for a moment in their proper ining campaign. If done, it is well that it during which some half a dozen more Sen- against conviction, and members of the sionally been indiscreet of speech; but fluence by the eccentric movements of were soon done. In a very short time the ators came in. There were not twenty House, seemingly satisfied that others this, too, will give very little support to the those comets and meteors which are, let us Radicals meet in Convention, and will be spectators in the galleries. The Chief- would vote with him, gave up in despair case of impeachment. Nobody can deny hope, only transiently glaring through the before the country with their candidates Justice then stated that the Senate met and went home. By this time it was 5 that Mr. Johnson's conduct has fallen same firmament. In ordinary times, when and the platform upon which they propose this morning with closed doors, and the o'clock, and the Senate took a recess until short of the dignity of his place, but we are no great principles or interests are involved to plant themselves. Many of our friends doors would now be closed unless some 72 o'clock. The temporary vacation at the bound to add that, upon the whole, it has in the political broils at Washington, the the nominating Convention till July, and a doors were closed he desired to submit a or private place in town that is not busy were entitled to anticipate. Taking his others of the impeachment ring are playing movement has taken place to induce the motion, which he thought would meet the to-night with the hopes and fears of to- official career from first to last, he has cer- off; but when it comes to grave and mopapers. Senator Williams suggested that until to-morrow, at 10 o'clock.

should, before the roll was called for the grand-daughters. day, admonish all those present that no exwould be placed under arrest. Senator "That's it," and Senator Sherman then withdrew his motion, and the doors were was the disposition of the form of questions to be put to each Senator when called upon to record his vote of guilty or not guilty on the articles of impeachment. He had, as required by the Senate, prepared ple of political bathos. The most gigantic, the following questions which he read:

guilty of this article as charged?

high crime and misdemeanor? after some discussion were, on motion of hardly necessary to entertain, so plain does The simple truth is that the outside South- man who took him alive); he confessed his movals, except when he thinks proper to consult teen minutes. Mr. Sherman, of Ohio, was this—that he placed himself in opposiwas coming into town, on yesterday morn- them. After such a judgment Congress had the first Senator to address the Senate.— tion to Congress. The Executive and ly described by a philosophical African in better resign. The country has no use for it.— He announced in his opening that he should the Legislatuse have been for some time Andrew Johnson is the Government." Some years ago a son of one of our him with the intent to violate that law. | ble that these authorities might differ in got to leave." This is the prevailing idea at the time shone brightly, and many vestored the short of the were heard of the wanderer, and the the hands of the Senate. He concluded respect of Congress may be admitted, but and blacks in the presence of the United with its force not the least abated, struck vannah, Ga., chanced to meet the truant | sin, and Mr. Williams, of Oregon, follow- out creating more than a passing remark, upon the street and accosted him by name. ed successively in dry legal arguments in strength at the polls and the protection of chorage without damage. Then followed spoken as hardly of Andrew Johnson as Congress and full of false notions of converse and full identity, but the gentleman told him that in reply in support of acquittal. At this ever he spoke of them. There was a poderer acknowledged his name. He soon the Senate Chamber were filled by mem- ica, and, indeed, in all free countries, it slipped away, however, and was again lost bers of the House, journalists, and others seems out of all measure to make angry the performers was the long lost son, who from the debate as far as it had progressthe establishment, and whom he had mar- to anxious inquiries throughout the countries throughout throughout the countries throughout throughout the countries throughout throughout throughout the countries throughout ried some time ago. They were welcomed try, stating that conviction was certain, from this prosecution. A law was passed tion, white and black, from the West to has ensued from it in the interior. and made at once at home, and the young that although Trumbull had not yet spok. by Congress, avowedly in prejudice to Mr. the South, and then we may expect to Massacre of American Seamen in China. man has settled quietly and sensibly down en, he was for conviction, and that Fes. Johnson's authority, to the effect that it see a considerable selling out and exodus By special telegrams from Malta, by way after his wanderings, and will cheer the senden was sure to go the same way. The should not be competent for the President of Southern white landholders for some of London and through the Atlantic cable, news came over to the House, and the im- to remove from office certain Ministers of other country, for under negro supremacy, we have advices from China which report probabilities of the result.

against the first eight articles, and was cut tenure of office in question independent of a long lane that has no turn."

time to come. The Chief-Justice immedi- partisan, but expressive: "Well, sir, im- would not be held in America, that the act subject of party, will stand by and uphold

From the London Times, April 23. IMPEACHMENT IN EUROPE.

Conness and other Senators exclaimed The London Times_Nothing to Justify the

The great state trial of the New World is rapidly approaching its close, and any hour may now bring us intelligence of the judgment pronounced upon Andrew John- Anarchy in the South_"Somebody's Got to son by the American Senate. It is a strange end of a mighty conflict-a singular examcostly and sanguinary struggle ever known First. Do you believe Andrew Johnson has dwindled into a prosecution, of which we, in this country, can only think that it Second. Do you believe this constitutes a need never have been instituted at all.— Whether the President of the Republic did The Chief Justice briefly supported his or did not commit the offences imputed to reasons for submitting these forms which, him is a question which it really seems

Mr. Sumner, unanimously adopted. The the conclusion appear, according to Eng-Chief Justice then said that the articles of lish opinions, that these offences were not demoralization which may be pronounced hannock jail. impeachment were open to discussion, and such as should have put him upon his trial. Southern anarchy. The new organization each Senator was entitled, under the rules The whole charge against President which had been accepted, to speak for fif- Johnson amounts to little more than dividing line of race and color, has brought vote against the first article relating to the at variance, but that is a misfortune which Civil Tenure-of-Office act, but should vote might occur at any time. The Constitu- of people down yer. Dere is de whites there was scarcely a rippling of the water for the conviction of the President on the second and third articles, which charge to the President, and it was always possible to the President of the President of the West Point. The moon the property of the water was scarcely a ripping of the water was scarcely a ripping of the water wind of any note south of West Point. The moon to the president of the Presid peachers on the floor were gleeful. Members gathered in knots and discussed the bridle Mr. Johnson and prevent him from States with the army still on hand to en-After the recess, Senator Doolittle took whose sympathies might be rather with moving detachments, will settle the ques- complete inquiries as to the fate of the The friends of the President had by this President Lincoln could at any time have Radical reconstruction? From present appropriate that a few of them are yet alive time become somewhat despondent, when removed him. Congress desired that Pre- pearances it will not be an inviting region and held in the territory. Their bodies, suddenly news came from within the crow- sident Johnson should not possess this for settlement to any white man who is not dead or alive, are to be sought by the men A man who gives his children habits of ded lobbies without that Mr. Henderson, power over one of its own allies, and there- prepared for negro supremacy in the State of the Shenandoah, and Captain Ferbiger's off by the expiration of his time on the the President's pleasure. This measure Probabilities of the Acquittal of the Pres- pinth article. This was the turning was notoriously directed against Mr. Johnident- Senators Grimes, Fessenden, Trum- point of the day. The break in son personally, insomuch that evidence leaders feel at the unexpected possibility bull and Henderson against Conviction the Radical ranks had commenced, was offered during the trial, but refused by of the President escaping their hands they Several other Republican Senators con- and the outside current which had the Senate, to the effect that the whole drop the mask altegether, and no longer sidered sure for Acquittal_Extraordina- been flowing for five hours in favor of the Cabinet, including Stanton himself, advis- hesitate to disclose the low purposes of the ry excitement in Washington and else. conviction had commenced to run in the where Proceedings of the Senate in Senois, was the next speaker. Senators delaw, but there was obviously a scoffs at the "cant of an oath," at "recrescribe him as the centre of intense interest question whether the act could have such ant Senators," at "traitors to party," meanas he proceeded for half an hour to make a a retrospective operation as to affect the ing thereby those sworn junges who proscathing review of the indictment present- tenure of an office conferred by a former pose to decide this case according to their ed by the House against the President, President under different conditions. Mr. oaths and consciences, and the evidence, That is the sentence dropping from the characterizing the whole as a flimsy, weak Johnson considered that it could not, and they forget, or remember only to despise, tongue and ringing in the ears of nearly affair, that would not stand a legal test in he proceed at a later period to remove Mr. the grounds of law and public justice on tainly exceeded the expectations which mentous matters like the present, the assistants throughout the galleries, with Chamber without tickets. The evening and Democratic principles, but even if it garden. They will look with confidence directions to arrest all disorderly persons has been occupied by Mr. Morton, of In- be assumed that the policy pursued by to the wisest statesmen and ablest lawyers that was required. The Chief-Justice stated son, of New Hampshire, who are regarded thwarted, but it could not be controlled. that the Sergeant-at-arms had already as doubtful, and some of whom are cer- The President, as a matter of fact, did not > natural incidents of political freedom. From the N. Y. Herald.

Carolina, Georgia and Louisiana, appear, ern States are in that condition of political guilt, and is now confined in the Rappathese suggestive words: "De fac is, we's in the Highlands, near Cold Spring, about beginnin' to tink dere is too many kinds 2 o'clock yesterday morning. At that hour anything like fraternization; and the ig- Poughkeepsie. She was thrown on her norant blacks, presuming upon their beam ends, but managed to reach safe an-"somebody's got to leave."

of the States concerned to both houses of of Providence, came next, and was hurled The legal aspect of the case may be a Congress, as reconstructed under the Rad- ashore on Stony Point as quickly as her dismissing any member of the Cabinet force it, the Southern whites, in numerous ron, had proceeded to Corea, to institute industry, provides for them better than by of Missouri, had just concluded a speech fore passed the bill which rendered the and negro equality in the family; but "it is mission promises important results.

admitted. The Mask Thrown Cff.

character, are charged as advertisements.

RATES OF ADVERTISING.

1 square, of 10 lines or less, for each and every

Special Notices will be charged $200 per square

All Obituaries and private publications of every

No advertisement, reflecting upon private character, can, tander ANY CIRCUMSTANCES, be

In the frantic rage which the radical for each and every insertion.

spect themselves, and whose long and people desire higher qualities in their It is not for us to begthe question by de- leaders than those which belong to the

From the Virginia Sentinel, May 4.

One night last week, while Mr. Cornetaken the proper precautions in the mat- tainly expected to vote for acquittal, have succeed in removing Mr. Stanton, nor lius Smith, of Laurel Mills, Rappahannock ter. Senator Sherman said that notice of not yet addressed the Senate. Shortly could be enforce his own views on the re- county, Va., was detained in this place, a the same should be given in the morning after 11 o'clock an adjournment was made construction of the South. It cannot be negro man in his employ took a horse from pleaded that there was any necessity for his stables and went to the residence of as there would be many strangers in the The President attended a May ball at the depriving him of the power to do evil. - Mrs. Noakes, the mother-in-law of Mr. galleries to-morrow that the Chief Justice National Theatre to-night with his little He vetoed the measures of Congress, but Smith, and told one of her daughters, an Congress passed them again over his veto, exceedingly interesting young lady, yet in and the actual policy of the United States her teens, that Mrs. Smith, her sister, had was not Democratic, but Republican .- been taken suddenly ill, and that he had Congress had the upper hand, and might been sent with a horse upon which she was have been content with its power. It to go over at once. The young lady would be better, of course, that the Execu- started, accompanied by the negro on foot. tive and Legislature should be in harmony When they reached the Rappahannock he President's Removal_The Legal Aspect | with each other, instead of contending in insisted (and this was doubtless his predaily conflict, but such differences are the arranged plan) that she allow him to ride over on the horse behind her; she refused: he then seized her and dragged her from the horse, beat and choked her most cruelly, and bit the flesh from her shoulders and arms in a shocking manner, in many places. Fortunately, before he had The results of the late elections, for all accomplished his fiendish purpose, the practical purposes, in North and South horse got away, and while he was attempting to secure him, she escaped by fording after all, to be thoroughly radical. The the river and running to a neighbor's Democrats here and there are putting in house some distance off, and at whose door complaints of frauds, and investigations she was found shortly afterward in an inwill probably follow in various districts; sensible condition. The negro was arrested but, doubtless, they will end in smoke .- on the following morning (shame upon the

A Tornado on the Hudson,

A dispatch from Poughkeepsic, New

The solution of this problem will not, lence, and she, too, was driven ashore on